

HATTON NATIONAL BANK LTD.

RULES GOVERNING THE OPENING OF SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

1. A savings deposit account may be opened by persons acceptable to the Bank. The production of the National Identity Card / Passport will be required to open the account.
2. Savings Deposit Account may be opened :-
 - (a) by an individual in his or her name,
 - (b) by two or more persons, jointly in their names,
 - (c) by and in the name of an association, club or similar institution, subject to their by laws being acceptable to the Bank
 - (d) by a minor under special arrangements.
3. The minimum initial deposit with which an account should be opened could be ascertained from the Branch where the account is opened.
4. A pass book will be issued free of charge for each account opened and no charge will be made for any book issued in continuation of the original pass book.
5. On opening a savings deposit account, the Account Holder / s will be required to adhere to the rules governing the conduct of savings deposit accounts embodied in the savings pass book.

FOR BANK USE ONLY

Quarterly Survey / Classification

FTZ Customer

Customer Type

Nature of Business

Customer A/C/ Type

.....
Data Input by

.....
Data Checked by

.....
Audited by